NEW MOUNTAIN BIKE EVENT TESTS RIDERS' ENDURANCE

PRINCE GEORGE – Endurance, strength and focus—the three main ingredients for riders looking to compete in the inaugural PG 2 Day Enduro mountain bike event.

From Jul. 22-23 riders from around northern B.C., of all ages and skill levels, will partake in a multi-stage race at three of Prince George's trails: The Caledonia Nordic Ski Club (Otway), Pidherny Recreation Site and Tabor Mountain Recreation Area.

“This is the first time a single event has incorporated all three of our city's most coveted mountain bike trails. We're excited to welcome riders, and their supporters, for this new experience,” said Tourism Prince George CEO Colin Carson.

PG Epic Enduro is being hosted by the Prince George Cycling Club. Day one of the races start at Otway for the first two stages, followed by Pidherny for stages three and four. On day two racers will take to Tabor for the last stages: six to eight.

Registration is $50 and can be completed online. Riders can also view the trail routes here.
